PAUL GRISANTI has been serving others in the hospitality industry for nearly thirty years. Paul managed Ferd Grisanti Restaurant from 1973 to 2001 and continues to be co-owner with his brother Vince.

Paul also has experience in the wholesale liquor industry, working in sales for a year and a half for the Vertner Smith Company (now Commonwealth Wine and Spirits). Paul has gained vast experience in sales and customer service in both of these capacities.

Paul's approach to the Commercial Real Estate business blends the tried and true values of honesty, diligence and customer service with the technological advantage of speed and accuracy.

Paul has a degree in Business Administration from Bellarmine University.

In addition to his work experience, Paul has served on numerous boards and volunteer projects including:

Three terms as President of the Jeffersontown Chamber of Commerce, Board member of Catholic Cemeteries, Board member of the Kentucky Restaurant Association, Fund Raiser for Church of the Ascension Building Project, and participant in various fund raising projects for groups, such as, Dare to Care, Cystic Fibrosis and Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Paul has brokered land sales, retail space, business for sale, industrial property, and has represented both landlords and tenants in office brokerage.
